

Appomattox Revisited.

CHAS. M. MACHAM, Editor.
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1889.

No wonder Sunset Cox died. He had six doctors.

The New Jersey Democrats have re-nominated Gov. Abbott by acclamation.

Eleven men were drowned in a flooded coal mine near Golden, Colo., Monday morning.

Sixty-nine counties have been counted so far, which gave the constitutional convention a majority of 21,870.

The Sunday Gazette, of Washington, a Republican paper, says John G. Carlisle is the most intellectual American in public life.

The count has been completed in West Virginia and Fleming, Dem., has a majority of 212 of the legal votes cast for Governor.

Hildeberger has taken the stump for the Democratic ticket in Virginia, which is so far the most discouraging feature of the campaign.

There are eleven candidates for the Democratic nomination for clerk of the court of appeals and the election is still eleven months off.

Tanner, Commissioner of Pensions, resigned Wednesday at the request of the President. It is believed Maj. Wm. Warner, of Kansas City, will succeed him.

If Jno. L. Sullivan runs for Congress he will have to fight under new rules. There will be no empire and he will have to knock his opponent out on the first round.

Gov. Buckner has ordered the Lexington and Harrodsburg companies of State Guards to Harlan county to protect the court at the trial of the Howland gang.

There are no candidates for chaplain of the coming Republican House. It is a hard lot to pray for, but some preacher ought to be found to tackle the job. They will need it.

A Warren county debating society has decided that the steam engine is of more advantage than the printing press. It is now in order to tackle the married and single life problem.

The last request of a negro recently hung in Arkansas was that he be permitted to eat a watermelon just before going on the scaffold. He ate it and died. Watermeloncholy fatal!

The editors of the Paducah News, the Bourbon News and the Harrodsburg News all entered into the matrimonial state last week, which leads the Union Local to remark that the foregoing editors were engaged in "Spreading the News."

The South Dakota Republicans have nominated Mr. Dollar for attorney general. When the new State officers repair to the capital Mr. Dollar hopes to be one, but the Democrats should show him no quarter.

Five Congressmen-elect have died since last November, viz: Furness, of Missouri; Gay, of Louisiana; Townsend, of Illinois; Lehigh, of Nebraska; and Cox, of New York. No political change in the complexion of the House will result from these deaths.

During the next volume Century is to have an illustrated series of articles on the French Salons of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, including portraits of many of the leaders and a detailed account of the organization and composition of several historical salons. A great number of interesting portraits will be given with the series.

"Jack the Ripper" has added another victim to the long series of mysterious Whitechapel murders. The nude body of a woman was found lying on the street in London Monday night, in plain view of a host upon which a policeman passed every fifteen minutes. The head and limbs had been cut off and carried away and the stomach ripped open like all the rest.

Samuel Sullivan Cox, the widely-known Congressman of New York city, died at his home Tuesday evening in his death the country lost one of its purest public men and the Democratic party one of its ablest and best equipped statesmen. "Sunset" Cox, as he was called, had been in Congress for nearly 20 years. He was 65 years of age and had achieved distinction as a lawyer, politician, diplomat, author and orator. He was famous the world over as the greatest humorist of the American Congress, but when occasion demanded he could deal in sound reason and unanswerable logic, and his party can ill afford to lose him at this time. His death creates a vacancy in the Lower House of Congress which may be captured by the Republicans, as it was in a great measure the personal popularity of "Sunset" Cox that has made his district so strongly Democratic.

Syrup of Figs.
Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of pure honey, it is the most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cures constipation, and is a most effective and reliable remedy for all ailments of the digestive system.

SUNSET COX DEAD.

Congressman Samuel S. Cox, of New York, died Tuesday evening aged 65 years. He had been recently returned from a trip to the new States and while stopping in Washington City contracted malaria fever. This developed into acute pneumonia, which carried him off in a few days. Funeral to-day.

THE PENSION ROLL.

Enormous Increase in the Expense of Supporting Ex-Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The increase in the pension list since 1873 is startling and extraordinary. In 1873, the number of pensioners was 99,501; in 1882, 173,138 and in 1888, 323,620. These figures do not comprise any but the army invalid pensioners. The whole number of pensioners on the rolls in 1888 was 425,578, an increase of 46,550 in the year.

Since the close of the war, the annual pension appropriation has grown from $11,000,000 to $102,000,000, and next year congress will be asked to appropriate $115,000,000. The aggregate of pensions paid since the fiscal year 1865 is $1,051,000,000, or one-half of the whole cost of carrying on the war. At the present rate of increase in the pension list, less than ten years it will cost the government $250,000,000 annually to pay the pensions.

Sam'l O. Graves Dead.

Mr. Sam'l O. Graves, editor of the Standard and Times, Lebanon, Ky., died at that place Monday Sept. 9th, after an illness of three days. His death was the result of blood poisoning and he was in the 37th year of his age.

Mr. Graves was born near this city and spent his youth and early manhood here. Upon reaching maturity he studied law and was for a while in partnership with Hon. John Feland. About ten years ago he went to Louisville and practiced law until 1884, when he took a position with the Evening Times. Subsequently he worked on the Courier-Journal and the Sunday Argus and a year or two ago went to Lebanon and bought a half interest in the paper which he was editing at the time of his death. He was married several years ago to Miss Eliza McCarroll, of this city, who with one child, a bright little boy, survives him. He has a large circle of friends in Hopkinsville, who will deeply regret his taking off while yet in the prime of life. The Louisville Times, whose editor was his personal friend, paid him the following tribute to his memory:

Sam Graves is dead! It is with a deep sense of personal and professional loss that we note the announcement. Talented, cultivated, with the freedom of a scholar, the intellect of a statesman and the heart of a true friend, he was a man who had been true to himself as to all other men, there are no heights in law or journalism to which he might not have been raised. But take him all in all, and just as he was and will ever remain in the memory of those who came within the earnest care of his womanly gentleness and manly force, and who among his associates of the Bar or Press shall depart, leave behind him a memory of his personal and professional life that will be a source of pride and comfort to his family and friends.

Too Many Fires.

PRINCETON, Ky., Sept. 10.—J. H. Brown, of the late firm of Keville & Brown, of this place, was arrested and brought before County Judge Allen to-day, charged with firing his own dwelling last Saturday. The proof is circumstantial, but very strong. Brown and his wife were visiting her father, W. S. Randolph, near here Saturday, Brown was seen by several at his residence in town, and in thirty minutes after he left fire was discovered in the house, which was securely fastened. On breaking it open it was found to have been set on fire in three different places, and was gaining good headway, but was finally extinguished, after considerable damage had been done. Brown has $1,600 insurance on his furniture. The house belongs to his father-in-law, Brown is not engaged in any business at present, having been burned out a short time ago. After he was burned out, creditors attached all the insurance, and he and his brother bought out H. M. Jones' dry goods store and were to take possession September 1. Failing to do so, he forfeited $500. A few nights prior to September 1, Jones' store was burned. Heretofore Brown has borne a good reputation, and his many friends dislike to admit that suspicion is against him in his last case, yet public opinion seems to be generally in that direction.

The grand jury this week investigated the case of Lewis Merritt, the boy who had a difficulty with Prof. Dietrich, superintendent of the public schools in this city, some months ago. It will be remembered that a pistol in the hands of young Merritt was fired in the school room, but it was called at the examining trial that the shooting was not intentional. The grand jury heard the statement of the principal witnesses and declined to find a judgment.

Circuit Court News.

The Stanley Case Occupies all the Week.

William Henry and A. H. Wallace were excused from further service on the grand jury Monday and Dr. E. R. Cook and J. M. Starling put in their places.

The case of Harmon and Ruzie Stanley, manslaughter, was begun Monday and the following jury empaneled: Milton Measum, Ed Payne, A. M. Campbell, Morris Cason, Geo. W. A. J. Martin, Foster McCann, Wainwright Lewis, Jno. T. East, O. S. Stevens, W. S. Witty, Milton Haley and R. C. Morefield. Argument was begun in the case yesterday morning.

Mr. D. L. Johnson opening for the defense. Mr. Jas. Breathitt for the prosecution and Messrs. Payne and Garnett were also to speak. The case was expected to go to the jury last evening. The indications point to a hung jury.

No civil matters disposed of this week.

The Court of Appeals on Tuesday dismissed the case of Robinson's Administratrix vs. the L. & N. Railroad Co. from this county. El Robinson, col., was killed on the railroad and a verdict of $5,000 was obtained in a suit for damages. An appeal was taken and pending the appeal the case was compromised for $2,000. Hence the dismissal.

Mr. Matt Winfree, of this county, and Miss Mabel Fallon, of Henderson, were married on the 10th inst. The Henderson Journal of Wednesday says:

If this escapes the waste basket, I will write again.

CREAM OF NEWS.

He Denies It.

In its "Society Gossip" column the Owensboro Messenger gets off the following concerning Judge Grace:

"It is rumored that Judge Grace, of the Hopkinsville circuit, who it will be remembered presided in the D. V. case at a term at the county court in this city, was married to a wealthy widow of Trigg county. Judge Grace was the administrator of her husband's estate and, at her request a few years ago to invest $15,000 of her money, took it to Birmingham during the boom of that town and in nine weeks returned her $75,000. The judge has a sufficient of good qualities to excite the admiration of almost any lady, but in this matter he acquitted himself so cleverly that it would have been a flinty-hearted woman, indeed, who could have failed to admire him."

Judge Grace was seen by a Kentuckian man in regard to this charge and asked if he had anything to say in his defense. He appeared much amused and laughingly said: "A certain gentleman in Hopkinsville (naming him) says the editor of the Messenger couldn't tell the truth if he tried and in this case he seems to be about as far from it as usual."

A Large House Moved.

Mr. Schofield, of Evansville, was employed by the city council to move Mrs. M. E. Rodgers' dwelling house this week. The house, a large two-story frame building, was on a lot with the pavement and when this was cut down the foundation of the house was dug under and it became necessary to roll the building back from the street. This has been done and the whole building, including the ell in the rear, rolled back twelve feet. A portion of the cellar will be destroyed, but the property will be improved in appearance and made much more desirable as a residence. The expense to the city was something over $100. A handsome wall, similar to that on the opposite side, will be built in front of the lot on the south side of the street, between Virginia and Liberty streets.

The Ninth Street Work.

The work of improving Ninth street has reached a point where no further progress can be made until the necessary curbing can be secured. Contracts for curbing were made months ago with stone-cutters, but they have been slow about meeting their obligations and the work has come to a temporary standstill. The city authorities are unable to get other stone-cutters and consequently the work cannot be pushed ahead any faster. The parties who undertook to supply the curbing are irresponsible in law and there is no recourse on them. The work of metalizing the north side of the street, where the curbing is down, was begun Tuesday and the south side is being put in readiness for the pavement as soon as the curbing can be obtained. It is hoped this will be ready in a few days more.

Two tobacco barns and a stemming factory in Montgomery county, Tenn., the property of Messrs. Walton and Charles T. Barker, were burned last week, destroying 35,000 pounds of tobacco and 1,400 bushels of wheat, besides a lot of farming implements. Loss estimated at $3,000, without insurance.

Tobacco cutting is now the order of the day everywhere and we may soon expect to hear of the usual number of tobacco barns burned through the carelessness of hired hands. There were not less than half a dozen such fires in the county last season.

Officer W. R. Vison tendered his resignation as policeman Monday and Harvey McGord was on Tuesday appointed in his stead. The Frankish filed the new "cop" out in a handsome uniform suit the same day and his 230 pounds of avoirdupois, in gleaming brass buttons, now looms up as a terror to evil-doers. Mr. McGord had previously demonstrated his fitness, by a week's service as a substitute prior to his appointment.

The Latam Light Guard, commanded by Capt. Henry, gave an exhibition skulch drill in Sharp's field W. Wednesday afternoon. A good crowd had assembled and the boys did credit to themselves, as they always do. They have secured Anderson's hall as an armory, which is very small, though larger than their former one. Hopkinsville should be proud of this organization, which bids fair to be one of the best drilled companies in the State.

Some time ago three colored men of this city named Morrison, McCombs and Bradley had the Brown-Square elixir injected into their arms for rheumatic troubles. All of them had abscesses to form on their arms. Bradley is still having serious trouble with his whole arm and is badly frightened. The other two are getting better and the places were said to have benefited somewhat, but he didn't want to experiment any further with the "elixir."

A CONDUCTOR KILLED.

WM. T. BRAME SHOT BY JAMES F. LEMON AT BAKER'S STATION, TENN.

Brame Escapes and is Still at Large.

Jas. F. Lemon, conductor on train No. 56, of the L. & N. road, locally known as the Nashville accommodation, due here at 8:45 p. m., was shot and killed by Wm. T. Brame, a conductor at Baker's Station, Tenn., at sunset Wednesday evening.

A representative of the KENTUCKIAN was on the train and witnessed the difficulty and the following statement of facts may be relied upon as correct:

Brame first made his appearance in the rear car at Baker's, 16 miles out from Nashville. He came from the smoking car, followed by the conductor, and attempted to borrow money from an acquaintance to pay his fare to Hopkinsville, saying he didn't have the necessary amount. Not succeeding in this, Lemon told him he must get off if he could not pay. Brame then arose and went forward without a word and passed out of the door, the conductor having pulled the bell-cord and stopped the train, which was in the act of leaving the station. Instead of getting off, Brame walked across the platform and into the smoker, but Lemon followed and caught hold of him and, assisted by the brakeman, Cave Johnson, pulled him out on to the platform, where Brame scuffled violently to keep from being put off. He was, however, finally pushed down the steps and on to the ground about two feet below. Lemon followed, but stopped on the lower step. This part of the difficulty had been seen by the passengers through the doors. As Brame struck the ground, alighting on his feet, the passengers put their heads out of the windows and saw him draw a very large and bright revolver and taking a step or two forward thrust it towards Lemon's right side and fire. He then turned, ran around the rear car and up the side of Baker's bill on the east side and disappeared in the bushes. Lemon was struck just below the right nipple, the ball passing upward and across the breast. Only one shot was fired. Lemon sank down and spoke once saying, "Catch me before I fall." The brakeman assisted him to the ground. He was entirely unconscious by the time he was put upon the ground and never regained consciousness. He died in forty minutes and the southbound passenger train took his body back to Nashville about an hour later.

Lemon was about 33 years of age and had been railroad 22 years, 17 years of that time with the L. & N. He had only been on this train about six weeks, but was on the same train in 1882 and 1883, with headquarters in this city. He was very popular with the railroad company, but had the reputation of being very firm and exacting in the discharge of his duties as a conductor. He leaves a wife and a daughter six years old in Nashville.

Wm. T. Brame is a native of this county and was at one time watchman for the coal dealers of this city. Later he was employed as watchman for the L. & N. Company. He went over to Edgely Junction Wednesday morning on Lemon's train, with Jas. Holman, who had a pass for 60 workmen, seeking employment, but it is presumed failed to find work and thought Lemon would let him return to Hopkinsville without paying. Brame is the same man who killed Deputy Sheriff Blah Beaumont, of Clarksville, about 14 or 15 years ago, at Garrettsburg, in this county. Beaumont undertook to arrest him on some charge without a requisition and Brame shot him dead on his horse. He is about 41 years of age. The L. & N. Company in today's paper offers a reward of $500 for his capture. He escaped bareheaded and without money and it is not probable that he can get out of the country without being detected and arrested. The killing occurred in Davidson county, Tenn., where he will be tried if captured.

In the Court of Appeals Tuesday the case of Christian county & Co. vs. Smith, the O. V. Railroad case, was called and a petition for a new hearing filed. A new proposition did not have a bearing in what we want.

J. W. Postell, a colored man and one of the government gaugers recently appointed by Collector Feland, arrived in the city Thursday and has been stationed at Hill & Winstead's distillery. Postell is a native of Hopkinsville. He is nearly white, a young man and rather intelligent looking. His father is well off and rather a prominent man about Hopkinsville. —Henderson Journal.

Some of the other colored applicants in this city are greatly dissatisfied that Postell was appointed, claiming that he reached his majority only last April and has never yet cast a vote. The same objection has been raised against some of the young white men appointed, who are hardly old enough yet to have identified themselves with the party.

An Ostrich Family.

Sells Brothers recently bought all the ostriches on the famous Santa Ana, Cal., ostrich farm, and will carry the full flock of ostriches with their big show this season, after which it is their intention to establish an ostrich farm either at Columbus, O., or Topeka, Kan.; at both of which cities they have vast real estate possessions. An experienced keeper travels with the birds and will explain the details of ostrich breeding. The feathers of these birds last year were sold to a New York firm for $15,000, but this year they were not plucked and their beautiful plumage will attract the admiration of all who see them. This is only one feature of over 100 absolutely new things to be seen in the stilled shows. Sells Brothers and Barrett's shows will exhibit in color at Hopkinsville, Sept. 18.

There have been five cases of diphtheria in the city within the last few days. Four were near the gas-house and one in Gainesville. All were colored. Geo. Hubbard lost one child and has another sick. Albert Means lost one yesterday. Chas. Jemp and a man named Britt each has a child down with the disease. The Board of Health met yesterday to consider the matter and every precaution will be taken to prevent the disease from spreading. No serious trouble is apprehended.

John Theobald, who was under arrest for having a personal difficulty with J. H. Crutched, in which the latter was severely injured, escaped from officer Neale one day last week, but was soon afterward captured at Murray. He was brought back by Sheriff Norman and Marshal McNitt, and released by giving bond in the sum of $250. —Mayfield Monitor.

Theobald was formerly an express driver of this city and Crutched is a native of this place, being a brother of Mrs. J. F. Pyle. He lives at Wingo, near Mayfield.

People who live in new countries are liable to be prostrated by malarial fevers. Inhabitants of cities, by reason of bad drainage and unwholesome odors, suffer from similar diseases. Ayer's Ague Cure is warranted a specific for all malarial poisons.

Drawing and Painting.

We desire to call the attention of all who wish to take lessons in drawing, painting, etc., to the very excellent advantages offered in these studies at South Kentucky College. Mrs. A. C. Knudsen will teach these branches. She has had a large and successful experience, having taught in some of the best schools in Kentucky, Alabama and Tennessee. She refers to Prof. Cabell of Potter College, Bowling Green, Ky.; to Prof. J. B. Hancock, of Ward's School, Nashville, Tenn.; and to the Athens College, for young ladies, Athens, Ala. Terms moderate and satisfaction guaranteed.
